NOTICE

Persons intending to buy lots for residences should first check with the Town Office as to building regulations, width and length of lot and area required. Some persons are buying lots on which the Town cannot issue a building permit.

TOWN COUNCIL

The Town has eight (8) choice residential lots for sale, on water and sewer line. Will be sold at a low price for construction of residences now. Will not be sold for speculation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Rasmussen enjoyed a brief visit from Mrs. Rasmussen's brother Joe Dudley of Salt Lake last week.

Second Ward Elders Celebrate

A grand evening of entertainment was enjoyed by the Second Ward Elders and partners Wednesday night. With Betty Hutton, Eddy Allen, Cliff McKay, Ziegfeld Follies, Rag Time Fannie and Vaughn Monroe in attendance the program left nothing to be desired. The Elders, along with the master of ceremonies Bill Nalder are still wondering how a young man from the O. K. colony got mixed up with the group. Needless to say "his fool" was top brand humor. Those performing were Morris Mickelson on his accordion, Darwin Oler danced and sang in costume (a bit shocking at times to the modest elders); Melba Attwood, Jolayne Hill and Irene Bowden in glorious technicolor danced the "Doll Dance". Delbert Oler was very tired but still managed to play a couple of saxophone solos. Kay Salmon used his festive voice on a couple of vocal solos. Ethel Hicken from Wolf Creek had the piano as well as the audience vibrating when she played "Who Stole My Gal". Herb Bishop accompanied by Herb Bishop crooned a couple of new tunes; and then there was the O. K. boy Arledge Hill.

David Brandley was welcomed home from a two-year mission in Eastern Canada.

Olive Steed conducted the games. They were lively and amusing and not too difficult. Everyone had a good appetite for the lunch which was plentiful and good.

Darwin Oler brought his records along and was the caller for the round and square dances.

All those in attendance wish to thank the committee for the fine party—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Jensen, and Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Piegras.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Nilsson have enjoyed having as their guests this week, their daughter and grandson Mrs. Peter Jones and Peter Wayne of Edmonton.

She is also visiting her sisters Mrs. Bryant Heninger, Mrs. Ross King, Mrs. Restall and Mrs. L. Christensen.

Mrs. Tommy Allan enjoyed a few days vacationing in Great Falls over the week-end.

Mrs. Lavin Hall was hostess to the Friendship Club when they met this week for their usual enjoyable evening of chatting and lunch.

Mrs. Hendenstrom, Miss Birt, Mr. and Mrs. Ike Orgill and Mrs. Casey Ralph motored to Calgary over the week-end where Mrs. Ralph visited Donny and Miss Birt visited her mother.

By the time Mr. and Mrs. Jay Atwood arrived home at Lucky Strike after visiting their parents in town, they were wondering whether it was worth it or not. They were just about nine miles from home on Monday when they got stuck and couldn't go any farther, making it necessary to walk the remainder of the way.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Turner were hosts to their Study Class Sunday evening at which Mrs. Hope Jensen presented the lesson followed by discussion and the serving of a lovely lunch.

After the lovely program each girl chose a rose and explained what the rose symbolized to her, and then laid it on the ribbon. When Fay Dawley, Jacky Thompson, Rita West, LaRue Jensen, Beverley Flexhaug, Alice Jean Hedenstrom and Louella Larson had completed this, their teacher Mrs. Marva Nalder tied the ribbon and presented it to the YLMA President Mrs. Bowden, who in turn suggested that the girls give their roses to their mothers.

Canadian troops in Korea have been getting an extra shot in the arm during the past few weeks. Comedians, Johnny Wayne (left) and Frank Shuster, with singer Terry Dale, have headed an entertainment troupe providing props for servicemen's fagged-out funnybones with music and madness. The gang that took off from Toronto on March 24th included dancer Zena Cheevers; musicians Lou Lewis, Jimmy Reynolds, Vic Centro, Ted Roderman, and Harry Nicholson; announcer Herb May; CBC producer Jackie Rae; and sound engineer Don Bacon. So that listeners in Canada could hear their regular edition of the Wayne and Shuster Show on the CBC's Trans-Canada network, the group recorded shows on tape and shipped them back by air.

Diane Watson celebrated her seventh birthday on Saturday when a number of friends called to play games with her after which Mrs. Betty Watson served a tasty lunch.

Joseph Christian Given Last Rites

Funeral Services were held in the Stake House on Saturday for Joe Christian whose sudden death came as a shock to his family and friends.

The opening Prayer was offered by Gordon Lybbert after which the Choir sang "Oh My Father" with Mrs. Eleanor Hudson conducting and Mrs. Beth Walker organist. "Beyond The Sunset" was sung by Mr. and Mrs. Jim Harker followed by a talk by Melby Lybbert who spoke of his long association with the deceased, from childhood until death. An old cowboy favorite, "Home On The Range", sung by Joe McLean, was the next number following which Bishop Hicken, who conducted the Service, gave a few remarks of comfort to the family. "I Know That My Redeemer Lives" by the Choir was the concluding song and Bishop Golden Snow offered the benediction.

The Pallbearers were Stan Bennett, Jan Christian, Dale Jensen, John Christian, Bill Witbeck and Merlin Stevenson. Pres. John Allen offered the Graveside Prayer.

Joe, who was 42 years of age, died as a result of an accident which occurred on McIntyre Ranch last Tuesday when he and another employee were returning from repairing fences. He had stretched out on the wagon to relax and when the driver of the team apparently made too sharp a turn, he was unable to jump clear of the wagon as the driver was able to. He suffered a broken neck and crushed chest; living only a few minutes after the accident.

He had worked at the Ranch during the summer for the past several years and had just started work for this season about three weeks ago.

Surviving him are his father, Nephi Christian, a brother Martell and a sister, Mrs. Stan Greep, all of Raymond and three brothers, Elmer of Burley, Idaho, Paul of Portland and Andrew of California. He was predeceased by his mother five years ago.

His family wish to express their thanks to the many friends who extended their sympathy and assistance at this time, and also to the Relief Society Ladies for the lovely lunch prepared for them.

Friends will be interested to learn that Dale Hicken left Australia on March 22 for home by a circuitous route which will include many points of interest. His last letter was mailed from France and when he has completed his tour in Europe he plans to visit in the States before arriving home on June 1st.

J. D. Atwood Conked By Flying Wrench

A near serious accident occurred last Thursday at J. D. Atwood's ranch at Lucky Strike when his son Jay and he were working with the tractor.

The tractor was idling while they made an adjustment on it and the generator belt knocked the wrench out of Jay's hand sending the wrench flying twelve or fourteen feet to where his dad was standing. It hit him on the forehead just above his eye knocking him out. Not knowing how serious the blow was, Jay was a frightened young man for a few minutes, so the Scotch Blessing he received from his father when he awakened from his deep sleep was described as being the happiest ever received.

The Ladies Auxiliary sponsored a Whist Drive Friday evening when twelve tables of whist were in play. At the conclusion of the enjoyable evening prizes were presented to Mrs. Stan Donaldson for Ladies High Score and Frank Ball for the Men's High while Mrs. Fran Lund and Alex Smith won the consolation prizes.

Lunch was served by the ladies before goodnights were said.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Christian and Mr. and Mrs. John Christian and baby Ricky of Burley, Idaho were visitors in town this week at the home of Nephi Christian while here for the funeral.

B.F. Goodrich Tubeless Tire

Because IT HAS NO TUBE

It may save your life...
 The B.F. Goodrich Life-Saver Tubeless Tire gives you maximum protection against the hazard of blowouts and dangerous skids, that frequently result in serious injury, and even death.

It can save you trouble...
 The B.F. Goodrich Life-Saver Tubeless Tire seals punctures on running wheels... protects against the annoying trouble caused by flat tires.

It will save you money...
 The B.F. Goodrich Life-Saver Tubeless Tire provides greater safety than any tire and tube, yet it costs less than the conventional safety tire-tube combination.

Don't let this happen to you

Automobile accidents caused by tire blowouts account for the loss of many lives, and an even greater number of serious injuries. Blowouts are caused when the inner tube explodes through weakened or broken tire cords. Because it has NO inner tube, a B.F. Goodrich Life-Saver Tubeless Tire changes a sudden, dangerous blowout to a safe s-s-slowout—allowing you time to stop your car safely, with perfect control.

PUNCTURE PROTECTION
 A gummy rubber compound under the tread immediately seals around puncturing objects, and permanently seals the hole when the object is removed. Inconvenience and delays are eliminated.

BLOWOUT PROTECTION
 Instead of a tube, the Life-Saver has a patented inner lining that's part of the tire. In event of damage there's no sudden blowout, only a small break in the liner, a s-s-slowout that lets you stop safely.

SKID PROTECTION
 The Life-Saver tread is cross-cut into thousands of tiny grip-blocks. At 30 miles per hour on wet roads, it stops you a car length quicker than regular tires... and gives you longer mileage too.

Your B.F. Goodrich dealer now has the Tubeless Tire

Place coffee in a clean muslin bag and tie loosely to allow for swelling of the grounds. They will double in bulk. Bring water to boil. Place bags in boiling water and cover. Regulate the heat so that the coffee will be just below the boiling point and will simmer until the desired strength is obtained — about 7 to 10 minutes. Remove the bag, cover the coffee, and keep hot while serving.

Essentials for Good Coffee

1. The utensils used in making coffee should be thoroughly clean. It is wise to scald them before using, to remove all stale odors.

2. Water used should be freshly drawn from the cold-water tap, or for beverages.

3. The water should be actively boiling before coffee is added.

4. The coffee used should be freshly ground, or vacuum packed for the best flavor.

5. Both coffee and water should be measured to assure uniform strength each time coffee is made.

6. The clearest, most mellow, coffee is never allowed to boil. Boiling develops bitterness.

MAYOR McGUP By John Jarvis

Farm folk used to fret when they had to get out of bed in a cold house to build a fire in the kitchen stove. To-day young city couples seem to think they should have an automatic alarm clock control on the thermostat for their oil burner.

AFTER washing the face with soap, it's no trick to get all the soap off if you use a vinegar rinse. Aromatic vinegar is most pleasant to use, one tablespoonful in the bowl of rinse water.

SERVE CANADA

Soldiers like those of the airborne infantry are helping to guard Canada, ready to drop into action wherever danger threatens. The young man who joins the Army and has completed his Infantry training may then volunteer to start training for the proud wings of Canada's "Soldiers of the Sky."

AND YOURSELF

How does a man choose a job? He examines the pay; the working conditions; the opportunities for advancement; the financial security. From every one of these aspects an Army career is excellent. And more — no monotony of being stuck for years in one place; pension plans after 20 years service; medical and dental care whenever needed — without regard for cost or time. Opportunities for training and advancement in the Army today are truly outstanding.

IN THE ARMY

Soldiering is a man's life! There are challenges and dangers. But wherever you go, in the Army, you know you can rely on your comrades, trained fighting men who share with you the action of military life. If you think an Army career is for you, enquire about the opportunities for service with the Infantry — the most important men in the Canadian Army.

You are eligible to join the Army if you are 17 to 40 years of age and able to meet Army test requirements. Applicants should bring birth certificates or other proof of age when reporting for interview.

THE BROADWAY STORE

CANADIAN GARDEN SERVICE by Gordon Lindsey Smith

WATCH FOR BUGS — It is quite true they didn't have the bugs and diseases in our grandfather's garden that we are plagued with today. On the other hand they didn't have the handy controls either. With so many easily applied chemical mixtures on the market, there is little if any excuse for having our flowers and vegetables damaged let alone ruined. It is no longer necessary to prepare various concoctions. All that one has to do is to go to the nearest seed store, tell them our troubles and get some handy preparation which is simply dusted or sprayed on. For every bug or disease there is a specific cure or control. The main thing is to start control measures just as soon as the first injury appears. Treatment is not expensive.

One other point. A healthy, clean and growing garden is the best insurance against injury. Well spaced, well cultivated plants are far less susceptible to trouble than neglected plots overrun with weeds. Prompt clean-up measures, after harvest or blooming, and in the spring and fall will also help greatly. Many bugs and disease live over in the ground, or in weeds along the edge of the garden. Cleaning these up regularly will help substantially in keeping a garden healthy.

NO HURRY — At the risk of repetition it should be stressed that there is no necessity for rushing gardening operations. Far more plants are injured or lost through too hurried and early planting than in taking things slowly. In virtually every area of Canada it is possible to go on planting right up to the first of July. Aside from very early things like grass seed, nursery stock, sweet peas and a few others, which are all specially mentioned in any good seed catalogue, there is little to be gained from rushing the season. As a matter of fact there is not a great deal of growth until both the weather and soil are really warm. This means at least May in most parts of Canada, though of course in the warmer parts of British Columbia, Southern Ontario and the lower tip of Nova Scotia it is usually possible to beat that schedule by perhaps weeks. Even in these areas, however, there is lots of opportunity for gardening in May and June.

One very common mistake of the beginner, is to plant all seed on a single afternoon and just as soon as the first fine days start. This is risky and foolish. It is risky because a later sharp frost may ruin all tender growth. It is foolish because if it escapes frost all the flowers will come out early or the vegetables will all be ready at the same time. With the latter especially it is advisable to spread sowings, so that the harvest may be spread out also. Experienced gardeners make a regular practice of planting such things as carrots, beets, lettuce, beans, spinach, radish, etc., at least three times, about two to three weeks apart. To further spread the harvest, they will also use early, medium and late varieties. In Canada as in Europe, there is no good reason why the vegetable garden should not yield continually from early summer until late fall. And the same goes for most annual flowers, too.

SOMETHING NEW — From the test gardens of North America, which, of course includes Canada, come a fine selection of new flowers and improved vegetables each year. Most Canadian (continued on page six)

Where does the money go?

At times most of us have looked at purse, wallet or bank-book, and wondered: "Where does the money go?"

Each year we at Imperial add up the company's bills to see what happened to the money we received in the previous 12 months for the gasoline, fuel oil and other products we sell. Here's where each dollar of Imperial's 1952 income went:

CRUDE OIL and other raw materials we bought, plus freight, took more than half of each dollar.

OPERATING expenses took more than 28 cents. This was the cost of searching for and producing crude oil, and of manufacturing and marketing the hundreds of products we supplied for thousands of uses. Throughout the year high quality products were made available where and when you needed them.

TAXES to provincial and federal governments took 10 cents. And this did not include gasoline tax, which—depending on where you live—took from 24 to 36 cents out of every dollar you spent for standard grade gasoline.

DIVIDENDS paid to shareholders for use of plants and equipment amounted to 4.06 cents.

TO REPLACE worn out equipment and to make sure that we can supply your needs in the future 3.42 cents was put back into the business.

JAN'S WAY OUT

By R. G. Crocker

JAN was depressed. There seemed no way out. Uncle Andrew had arrived again! As she expressed it to George, "He's a good enough traveling salesman; the only trouble is he doesn't travel enough!"

Uncle Andrew was somewhat of a drifter. He made a fair living selling, but was always dropping in on one relative or the other. He was a problem to "get on the road" again. He was fortyish and a bachelor. When Uncle Andrew descended on a household; there was little anyone could do but listen to his loud jokes and comments.

Jan set the clothesbasket down with a bang, and eyed the bulldog across the fence. It eyed her. "Ugly brute," Jan said. Bozo gave a low growl. Jan growled back. As Jan often told George, they had a "growing acquaintance," which Jan wouldn't admit was half affectionate. They understood each other. Thank goodness, Jan thought, Bozo wasn't one of those dogs that's forever underfoot to be petted, though he liked it well enough at times.

Looking at the dog, Jan had an inspiration. With Jan, to think was to act. She was through the fence in a minute, stopped to pat Bozo while saying disdainfully: "At least, I can growl at YOU without worrying about hurt feelings!"

Mrs. Browning would never be a close friend; but Jan did have a lot of respect for her. "Just like her dog," Jan thought unkindly. "They're both a lot better than they look!" The widow was short and stocky. Her coarse brown hair was frizzed in a permanent, lipstick usually smeared, rouge dabbed on each cheek.

Jan asked the widow over for lunch. Playing the role to the hilt, she told her about Uncle Andrew who was visiting, describing him as eccentric but a rather wealthy salesman, who was always jolly and full of fun. While she talked, she couldn't help thinking how much better the widow would look if she'd do something about the faint line of mustache that had developed on her face.

Lunch was all that Jan had anticipated. The widow was dabbed more colorfully with rouge than usual, and hung on Andrew's every word, roaring with laughter.

"Isn't he a scream?" she asked every few minutes. Lunch over, the widow bluntly stated it was a nice afternoon for a drive, and Jan almost felt sorry for Uncle Andrew as she dragged him away.

"What's the idea?" George asked, when they were out the door.

Jan laughed. "I don't think Uncle Andrew will stay around too long, with the widow chasing him!"

The next few days Jan and George watched from the sidelines. The widow camped on their doorstep. Uncle Andrew would hardly have time to sit down before the widow came in and swarmed over him. They didn't make a bad couple, George commented. But Jan couldn't see Andrew standing for much of the widow, after all the younger girls he dated. The hectic week passed. Saturday morning George drove Jan to the store for groceries, and when they returned, Uncle Andrew was gone. Not only Uncle Andrew, but his clothes. Jan heaved a sigh for relief.

"I guess Uncle Andrew's visit is over for this time," she said. "I'd have hated having him around for the next three months or so."

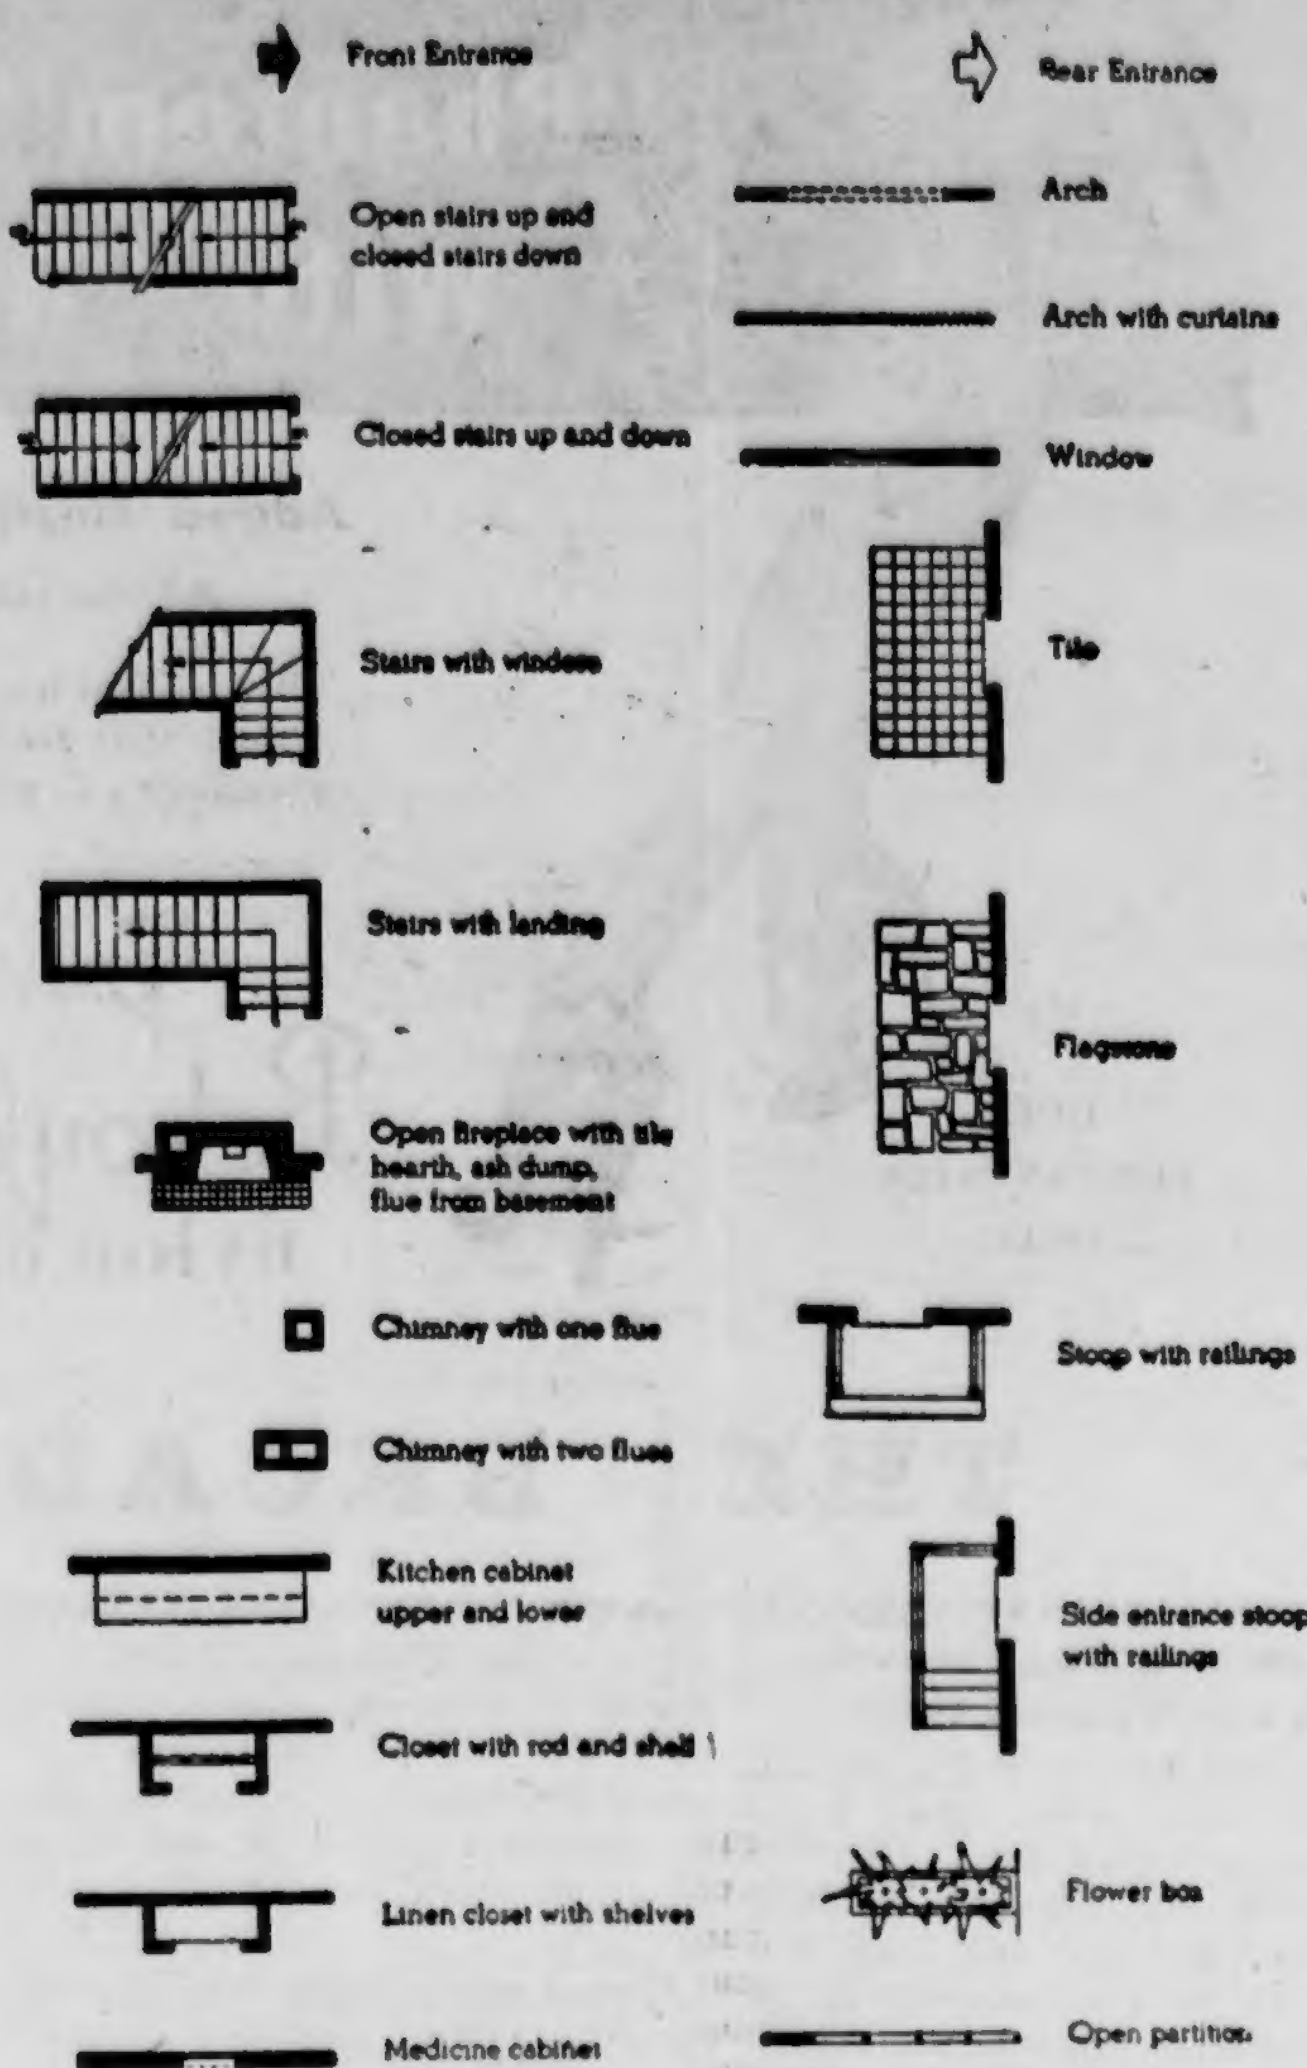

"You can say that again," George said. "I guess even Uncle Andrew can't take our widow. She is overwhelming!"

"I haven't seen her today," Jan said idly. "But I guess she's shopping, or visiting some relatives."

"And how," Jan said, dazed. Limply, she handed George the telegram. George read:

"ON HONEYMOON WITH WIDOW. TIME I SETTLED DOWN AND SOLD REAL ESTATE. BACK IN THREE WEEKS, WILL BE YOUR NEW NEIGHBOR. PLEASE FEED DOG—Uncle Andrew."

THE PURCHASING POWER OF A BUSHEL OF WHEAT

IN 1939 ONE BUS. OF
 WHEAT PURCHASED
 6 1/2 K.w.Hrs. of
 ELECTRIC SERVICE

IN 1952 ONE BUSHEL OF
 WHEAT PURCHASED
 50 K.w.Hrs. of
 ELECTRIC SERVICE

Regardless what the business or profession of a person in Alberta may be, all are vitally concerned with the purchasing power of a bushel of wheat. While we do not wish to belittle our natural resources, the economy of Alberta is dependent upon Agriculture. This is something we should never forget. We, therefore, thought it might be of interest to our customers to see a comparative table of the purchasing power of a bushel of wheat today, as compared with 1939, when used to purchase electric service by Farm and Domestic customers. Here is the comparison:

YEAR	Average Elevator Price Per Bushel Received by Alberta Farmers.	Average Amount Paid Per Kilowatt Hour.	Number of Kilowatt Hours a Bushel of Wheat Would Purchase.
1939	$0.52	8c	6 1/2 K.w.Hrs.
*1952	$1.51	3c	50 K.w.Hrs.

In other words a bushel of wheat in 1952 would purchase almost eight times the amount of electricity a bushel of wheat would have purchased in 1939 for Farm and Domestic customers on Calgary Power system.

ELECTRICITY TODAY IS YOUR BIGGEST BARGAIN.

* Last figures available up to July 31, 1952.
